Premium Stationery Standard

Designated stationery approach

The stationery schedule is specified for neat written presentation, durable daily use, clear subject organisation and consistent academic record keeping. Preschool resources remain age-appropriate and activity-led. Primary and Secondary packs adopt premium A4 spiral notebooks as the core presentation standard.

Premium notebook standard A4 spiral notebooks form the core writing-book standard from Primary through Secondary, with quantities matched to curriculum stage and subject load.	Mathematics readiness Geometry sets and scientific calculators are included at the relevant stages to support Mathematics, Science and Cambridge assessment preparation.
Organisation materials Folders, dividers and wallets support subject filing, homework presentation and long-term revision record keeping.	Supplier price basis Stationery values use premium supplier benchmarks, including Kingdom Books & Stationery spiral notebook and calculator listings, with final values subject to live stock confirmation.

Ordering and Issue Standards

Area	Published Standard
Order confirmation	Resource orders are confirmed after payment validation and school-shop stock allocation.
Subject-selected orders	IGCSE and AS/A Level textbook orders are prepared from each learner's approved subject pathway.
Edition control	Final textbook editions remain subject to Cambridge syllabus alignment, publisher revision and supplier availability.
Collection record	Receipts and order confirmations form the collection record for school-shop issue.
Resource labelling	Each book carries the learner's full name, class, subject and academic year.

Book Care and Presentation Standards

Standard	Presentation Requirement
Identification	Learner name, class, subject and academic year recorded on each textbook and notebook.
Protection	Textbooks covered where applicable and kept free from food, liquid and ink damage.
Organisation	Books filed and transported according to subject timetable and school-shop issue records.
Replacement	Lost or damaged resources replaced through the school-shop system.

Edition and availability control

The school may update titles, editions or equivalent stationery items where curriculum alignment, publisher revision, supplier availability or stock quality requires a change. Approved replacements will maintain the same academic purpose and comparable quality standard.
